                  ) By: Samuel G. Wilson
                  ) United States District Judge

This matter is before the court on plaintiff Levi Springer's motions for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunctive relief (Docket Nos. 5 and 8). The court referred the matter to United States Magistrate Judge Michael F. Urbanski, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1)(B), for a Report and Recommendation. The Magistrate Judge subsequently filed a report, finding no basis to grant Springer's motions and recommending that the court deny them. Springer filed objections within the fourteen days allotted under § 636(b)(1), largely reiterating the arguments made in his pleadings. Having reviewed the Report and Recommendation, the objections thereto, and pertinent portions of the record de novo in accordance with § 636(b)(1), the court agrees with the Magistrate Judge's recommendation. Additionally, the court finds that Springer's failure to file this action until nearly nine months had elapsed since the latest alleged assault is a strong indication that Springer himself does not feel he faces "actual and imminent" harm in the absence of relief. See Direx Israel, Ltd. v. Breakthrough Med. Corp., 952 F.2d 802, 812 (4th Cir. 1991).

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED and ADJUDGED that Springer's objections to the Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation are OVERRULED, and Springer's motions for a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunctive relief are DENIED.

The Clerk of the Court is directed to send a copy of this Order to the plaintiff.
